Ms. Feinman has worked as SCUREF's Financial Director for the past year. She holds an MBA degree in finance from Northeastern University, an MA from the University of Connecticut, an IRS AFSP tax preparer designation, South Carolina SHIP Certification, and she has a number of years of management and financial experience in government, private and international publically held companies, including work at the Savannah River Nuclear Site, and managing the SRSRA Retiree Resource Center. Her goal is to ensure compliance while helping to develop and support SCUREF's mission as it evolves with changes in scientific, government, university member and student needs.
